THE 7-DAY ARCHETYPE CHALLENGE

Explore your patterns. Discover your strengths. Express different sides of yourself.

Archetypes represent universal patterns of personality, motivation, and human experience. They aren't labels or boxes to fit into, but different aspects of yourself that you can explore, develop, and express. Spend 5–10 minutes each day experimenting with a different combination of archetypes through simple mind-body activities. Keep an open mind, get creative, and have fun discovering yourself!

DAY	DAILY EXPERIENCE	JOURNAL PROMPT	DONE
1 · THE ADVENTURER	Hero + Explorer: Step outside your comfort zone. Try something new, take a different walking route, or tackle a small challenge you've been avoiding.	Where could I use more courage? What would I explore if I weren't afraid of getting uncomfortable?	☐
2 · THE FREE SPIRIT	Innocent + Jester: Do something purely for fun! Dance to your favorite song, play a game, draw, or revisit something you enjoyed as a child.	What makes me feel playful and carefree? When do I allow myself to experience joy without an agenda?	☐
3 · THE MIND ALCHEMIST	Sage + Magician: Choose a frustrating situation and write down three different ways to look at it. Challenge your usual perspective.	What belief or perspective might I need to reconsider? How could changing my perspective change my experience?	☐
4 · THE CREATOR	Creator: Make something! Sketch, write, cook, build, experiment with music, or rearrange a space. Focus on creating rather than perfection.	What have I wanted to create but haven't given myself permission to try?	☐
5 · THE HEARTKEEPER	Caregiver + Lover: Perform one intentional act of kindness for someone else and one for yourself. Spend time appreciating something or someone meaningful.	Do I balance caring for myself with caring for others? Where could I invite more connection into my life?	☐
6 · THE LEADER	Ruler: Choose one area of your life that needs more organization. Set a small goal, make a plan, and take the first step.	Where could I take greater ownership of my life? Am I leading myself intentionally or simply reacting to circumstances?	☐
7 · THE WHOLE SELF	Shadow: Identify one quality you sometimes hide, criticize, or overlook. Consider how that quality might become a strength when expressed constructively.	Which parts of myself do I tend to suppress? What strengths might be hiding behind the qualities I criticize?	☐

DAILY RHYTHM

1. Explore a different side of yourself.
2. Experience it through action.
3. Reflect on what you discover.

END-OF-WEEK CHECK-IN

Which archetype felt most natural to me?
Which archetype challenged me the most?
Which archetype would I like to develop further?

Remember: You are not just one archetype. Different situations bring out different aspects of who you are. These archetypes are tools for exploration, not fixed personality labels. Experiment, stay curious, and embrace the opportunity to discover something new about yourself.
